Check strategies used:
- Predict
- Confirm and check
- Self correct
- Using understanding
- Splitting up/ sounding out

Check comprehension:
Possible questions:
Character
- Does the character remind you of anyone you know?
- How is the setting important to the character?
- Describe the main character.
- Give an example of a character’s feelings.
- What caused the main character to act in this way?
Setting
- Can you describe the way you are seeing this scene?
- Describe the setting.
Plot
- List the conflicts/ problems so far.
- What choices do the characters have?
- Predict what will happen next.
Language
- List some interesting words.
- Find three examples of how the author uses language to get the reader into the story.
- What style is the book written in?
Interpreting
- What message is the author getting across?
- Does this remind you of another event or another book?
- What do you think will happen before the end of the story?
- What are your feelings about the characters/ the story/ the events?
- What are the good/ bad parts of the story?
- How could the book be improved?
- What themes are dealt with in the story?
- What style is the book written in?
- What genre is the book?
- Would you recommend this book to a friend?
- What would you do if you were in this book?
- Is this book like another you have read?
- Which things could not happen in real life?
- What would it be like to be in this story?

Check attitudes:
- Self concept
- Commitment
- Enjoyment

Check range:
- Fiction
- non-fiction
- poetry
- jokes
- magazines
- different authors